PRESIDENT'S COLUMN

JOE LUSK

AN HONOR TO SERVE – THANK YOU

It has been my honor to serve as your President this past year. I think the First Judicial District is comprised of some of the finest lawyers and judicial officers in the nation.

I thank the Board of Trustees, Board of Governors, and committee members for their hard work in making what has always been a strong, vibrant 1st JD Bar Association that much better. Special thanks to Executive Director Vicki Malara, who was always available to assist, no matter what time of day.

The new President will be Ryan Hutton, who I am sure will do wonderful things for our Bar. Ryan's sincere and thoughtful participation on the Executive Committee this past year made my job as President much easier. If you haven't met Ryan, I encourage you to seek him out at one of our many functions in the coming months.

Samantha Lillehoff will serve as President Elect. It has been my pleasure to serve with Samantha in the last year on the Executive Committee, where she brought important insight into the Bar's finances as Secretary-Treasurer.

Andy Hart will be your Secretary-Treasurer, bringing talent, experience, and professionalism to serve on Ryan's Executive Committee.

In short, it has been a wonderful year. Thank you for allowing me to serve as your President.

UPCOMING VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY

This year's Mock Trial was a huge success and Mock Trial Chairs Jennifer Melton and Jenna Reulbach Kruszka are already planning for next year. They will need more than 120 volunteer judges and behind the scene workers in late January and early February. Specific dates have not been finalized but Jennifer can take your names now and contact you when they are set.

CONSIDER

You do not need any legal knowledge to be a judge. Clerks, secretaries, teachers, parents, members of the police department and fire department, attorneys, paralegals, librarians, etc. – all are encouraged to volunteer
