PRESIDENT'S COLUMN

Andrew Hart

Considering my audience – readers of The Proclamation, I may be preaching to the choir on this one; but, nevertheless, I am here to encourage you all to get involved in the 1st JD Bar Association. It is your opportunity to shape your legal community. You also get to help some folks along the way. I personally have reaped many rewards from my involvement. I have gotten to know many wonderful attorneys. This has made the practice of law more enjoyable. It also has benefitted my clients. Cases go much more smoothly when I have a prior relationship with the attorney on the other side. I also appreciate the 1st JD's assistance to the greater community, whether through sponsored events such as Law Day or through the dispersion of grants. It is truly rewarding.

Currently we are looking for new board members. If you feel inclined, and I hope that you do, please apply. To do so, please send your resume to admin@1stjd.org. The deadline is April 1.

A position on the board is not quite right? There are many committees that can always use motivated members. The committees and the associated chairs are: Awards, Chris Radeff & Magistrate Marianne Tims; Banquet, Kim Sparks; CLE / Luncheon, Steve Cook; Community Relations, George Bailey; Golf, Jon Bradley; Law Day, Magistrate Marianne Tims; Membership, Joe Lusk; Mock Trial, Judge Jennifer Melton; Nominating, Preston Branaugh; Professionalism, Barry Meinster; and Website, Ryan Hutton.

If volunteering on a committee does not fit the bill, then please, please, attend events. Go to any of the many CLE's the bar puts on – they are really good, and cheap too. Attend Law Day – it is coming back sometime this year after a COVID hiatus. Play some golf in our tournament on September 22nd. Check the calendar <https://1stjd.org/events/#!calendar> for other events that might interest you.

I hope to see you out there.

OFFICE FOR LEASE

Office for lease at 7400 Wadsworth Blvd., #101 with conference room + pantry. Best for one lawyer but room for two + secretary + file room. A solo lawyer is retiring and his entire office contents are available. You may lease a fully furnished law office with high quality desk, credenza, file cabinets and bookcases. Or, you may wish to purchase those items without leasing the office space. Call or email Bob Frie, 303 420 1234, bob-frie@frieardt.com

JUDGES AND AWARDS CELEBRATION

The Banquet Committee has determined that a grand event for 2022 is not feasible due to the lack of appropriate banquet space. Watch for information about a 2023 spring banquet that will be worth the wait.

BOOKCASES AND LAW BOOKS- FREE

*After 52 years of practice, we are merging our law practice with that of Doug Turner, Esq. We have available for someone, at no cost, custom made oak bookshelves which hold our Pacific and P2d volumes through 1993 and other volumes. They are what they are; a decoration item(s). They are a constant discussion item in our conference room and of course, we have read them all! Free to whoever wants to haul them off in the next 3 to 4 months.

7 GENERAL CLE CREDITS
Cost: $75

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This program is designed to encourage lawyers who have not yet had the experience of a jury trial (or during COVID times have not had one for a while). While jury trials are complex, basic jury trial skills can be learned and implemented, even by less experienced lawyers. This program is not designed to detail each and every one of these skills, but rather, is designed as an overview process for those who may be preparing for their first jury trial, or their first one in a while. The program is not designed to be specifically for criminal nor civil jury trials, but is instead, a comprehensive summary look at the jury trial process in general.
