PRESIDENT'S COLUMN

Andrew Hart

While many clients are desirous of settlement, I nonetheless always tell them courts are there to settle their disputes for two primary reasons: 1) reasonable people can legitimately disagree; and 2) people are, from time to time, unreasonable. The 2022 Major League Baseball season almost fell victim to both. So, in that vein, I give you the following (sing along with me):

Take me out to the Courthouse,
Get the file from my trunk;
Make my way to security,
They'll sure care if there's food in my pack.
Let us in, in, in to the courtroom;
If we don't win it's a shame.
For its one, two, three, objections sustained;
Back in the old Courthouse.

OFFICE FOR LEASE

Office for lease at 7400 Wadsworth Blvd., #101 with conference room + pantry. Best for one lawyer but room for two + secretary + file room. A solo lawyer is retiring and his entire office contents are available. You may lease a fully furnished law office with high quality desk, credenza, file cabinets and bookcases. Or, you may wish to purchase those items without leasing the office space. Call or email Bob Frie, 303 420 1234, bob-frie@frieardt.com

JUDGES AND AWARDS CELEBRATION

The Banquet Committee has determined that a grand event for 2022 is not feasible due to the lack of appropriate banquet space. Watch for information about a 2023 spring banquet that will be worth the wait.

SEEKING REFERRALS FOR OUR STUDY
From David R . Jones
Decker & Jones

I chair a subcommittee with the CJCC Criminal Justice Coordinating Committee where we are trying to assess what the need would be for an assisted living facility for those involved in the criminal justice system. We wonder if there is a fair number of defendants either in custody or out, that are not able to care for their daily needs due to either a physical or mental disability/condition. Participants will be interviewed by an intake worker and an assessment tool will be completed. The assessment will be one interview and the information will be destroyed after the data is used. If any 1st Judicial attorneys currently have clients like this on their case load who are charged in Jefferson County, please have them contact me at 303-573-5253.
